Call to Order – 7:06 p.m.

PRINCIPAL’S REMARKS – Roy Bishop

- Mix-It-Up Day was met with good comments. Next one will take place in March. Volunteers are needed.
 - Conferences are scheduled for March 20th and 21st. Mr. Bishop will provide food for teachers on the 20th; PTO will handle the 21st.

TEACHER REPRESENTATIVE – Anna Court

- 1st Grade is planning a field trip to Hunt’s Gym. Money requested for a bus. Approximately $260 is needed. PTO approved funding.
- PTO Board also agreed to pay for one bus trip per grade, per year. Parents will be asked to offset some of the costs. Students who need financial assistance will be sponsored by the PTO. Pat Bartos has a list of those students and Amy Schubert will touch base with her to acquire the names.

FUNDRAISING CHAIR – Jennifer Amori

- Absent

PTO COUNCIL OBSERVER – Nicole Guswiler

- Blue Ribbon Committee met and review enrolments. Mason is the only school to grow. We are up by 13%.
- Board will continue to work and a plan will be announced this summer and roll out the 20-21 school year.
- Pointe Peddlers are offering to teach bike safety to children. Will come to our school and ride with our students and provide instruction on proper street crossing, etc.
- A local group is providing pick-up and delivery on carry-out orders. Five dollars on each order goes back to Mason. Need more details on this.

DIVERSITY CHAIR – Emily Rennpage

ADDITIONAL BUSINESS

- Book Fair set-up to take place Friday, March 15th – Book Fair opens Monday, March 18th and runs through the week, during conferences. Monday is for teachers to preview and make their requests; Tuesday is for students to preview and make their lists; Wednesday, Thursday and Friday morning are open to the public. Sign-up for volunteers will go up shortly.
- Teacher Appreciation Week will mirror last year. Andrea VanBecelaire will review current list of “favorite things” and make sure that all teachers have submitted. The national dates of recognition are May 6th – 10th, however, we are not tied to those dates and will choose other times. April was suggested.
- The adult auction event is now being chaired by Amy Weglarz.
- Student Spring Fling is scheduled for Saturday, June 1. We will purchase two bikes to auction. Amy Schubert volunteered to handle ten baskets to also auction. We will look into bouncers; have an ice cream bar; hot dogs, etc. We also discussed pony rides or a petting zoo. More planning and discussion is needed to confirm.

ADJOURNED – 8:35 p.m.

NEXT MEETING
TUESDAY, March 19, 2019 – 7:00 p.m.
